

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 21, sec 33.

39. If, during the year for which they were elected, the burgess, assistant burgess, or any of the commissioners, shall die, resign, remove from said town, or become non compos, or displaced, an election to fill the vacancy shall be held, at which all persons qualified to vote at a general election may vote.

Ibid. sec. 34.

40. The burgess and commissioners may meet from time to time, as often as occasion may require, upon the business of the town, and not less than once in every three months.

Ibid. sec 35

41. The assistant burgess, in the absence of the burgess, shall preside at all meetings of the commissioners, and when the burgess is present, shall have the same power as one of the commissioners.

Ibid. sec. 36.

42. The burgess and commissioners may appoint a clerk and prescribe his duties, and may allow him such compensation for his services as they may think proper.

Ibid. sec. 37.

43. The clerk shall enter all ordinances passed by the burgess and commissioners in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, which shall be open at all times for the inspection of any person interested; and copies of all ordinances shall be put up in the most public places in said town.

Ibid. sec. 38.

44. The burgess and commissioners may make all such by-laws, regulations and ordinances as they may deem expedient for the comfort, health, convenience and prosperity of the said town, for the prevention of nuisances, preservation of health, and suppression of vice and immorality therein.

Ibid sec. 39.

45. They may levy an equal tax on the property in the said town, to such amount as may from time to time be deemed neces-
